

COLOR OF EDUCATION

Kisha Clemons

Kisha Clemons is the 2020 Wells Fargo North Carolina Principal of the Year. She is currently the principal at Shuford Elementary in Newton-Conover City Schools and a doctoral student in the Educational Leadership Department at UNC-Greensboro. Ms. Clemons resides in Claremont, NC and is a member of New Life Baptist Church in Concord.

Ms. Clemons is a North Carolina Principal Fellow and North Carolina Teaching Fellow alumna from Appalachian State University. She graduated with a degree in music education and spent six years as a middle school band director. After completing the masters in school administration program, she served as an assistant principal in Catawba County Schools for five years, principal in Rowan-Salisbury Schools for two years, and a principal in Newton-Conover City Schools for the past three years.

Under her leadership, Shuford has been recognized as a National Title I Distinguished School, recognized for their work with personalized learning. Ms. Clemons' personal vision is to inspire greatness in others and she is proud to be a champion for her students, staff, and community.