Tyler Whittenberg

Tyler Whittenberg joined the Southern Coalition for Social Justice in 2020 to lead the Justice System Reform program. Prior to joining the South Coalition for Social Justice, Tyler was Deputy Director of Advancement Project's Ending the Schoolhouse-to-Jailhouse Track project. In this role, he supported grassroots campaigns led by youth of color fighting to end the criminalization of Black and Brown students and create learning environments that are reflective of the world they envision for themselves. He began his career as an 8th grade social studies teacher in Columbia, South Carolina and has since dedicated his efforts to ending the school-to-prison pipeline and dismantling oppressive structures imposed upon Black and Brown youth.
