

COLOR OF EDUCATION

Greear A. Webb

Greear Webb is a dedicated organizer who cares deeply about lessening North Carolina's racial divide. Greear is a sophomore Morehead-Cain Scholar at UNC-Chapel Hill and the Co-Founder of NC Town Hall and Young Americans Protest (YAP)--Two youth-led nonprofits. He is a committed student striving for progress in gun violence prevention and police accountability legislation. Greear was selected as a 2020 Youth Voter Engagement Ambassador through Harvard University's Graduate School of Education because he knows that diversity is a people's strength and that reflective representation matters. Greear is a passionate, faith-driven leader eager to make change.